REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/01683

I write in connection with your request for information received on 27th March. I note you seek access to the following information:

Could you provide me with the following, for the calendar years 2015, 2016 and 2017.

- 1. In each of these calendar years, how many officers took part in evidence disclosure training?
- 2. In each of these calendar years, how much money did the force spend on providing officers with evidence disclosure training?

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response – Evidence disclosure training is included in numerous courses across Bedfordshire Police, Cambridgeshire Constabulary and Hertfordshire Constabulary. This would take a considerable amount of time to collate the required information, exceeding the appropriate time limit of 18 hours.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that –
“Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Hertfordshire Constabulary, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely

James Hodson
