REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/04003

I write in connection with your request for information received on 20th July. I note you seek access to the following information:

I would be grateful if you could provide the following data for your force area, for the period of the year to March 2018, and limited to adult (persons aged 18 or over) suspects only:

- 1. The total number of authorised detentions
- 2. The total number of authorised detentions in which the need for an appropriate adult was recorded
- 3. The total number of voluntary interviews
- 4. The total number of voluntary interviews in which the need for an AA was recorded

By way of clarification, and to avoid the need for repetition, the data being requested is for the financial year (12 month period) from 1st April 2017 to 31st March 2018, not the three months of the calendar year to 31st March 2018.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response – In order for us to decipher the total number of authorisations in which the need for an appropriate adult was recorded would require us to manually check each individual custody record, in which there are thousands.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that –
“Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Hertfordshire Constabulary, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely

James Hodson
