REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2017/01548

I write in connection with your request for information received on 5th December. I note you seek access to the following information:

I am requesting the following information under the freedom of information act:

-How much has it cost your force to police far-right demonstrations and protest by organisations such as Britain First and EDL since January 2010?

Please break the information down year-by-year.

If it can be achieved within the cost/time limit please break the costs for example how many police attended the events

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response – Please see the below table detailing the information in relation to your request.

| Location of Demonstration | Date | Costs |
|---------------------------|------------|----------|
| Stevenage | 07/06/2014 | £1613.18 |
| Hemel | 10/05/2015 | £413.82 |

The numerical data presented in this response is an un-audited snapshot of un-published data sourced from "live" systems and is subject to the interpretation of the original request by the individual extracting the data.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
