REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/02616

I write in connection with your request for information received on 15th May. I note you seek access to the following information:

Can you please tell me, how many files regarding cases of female genital mutilation (FGM) Hertfordshire Constabulary have sent to the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) for charging decisions in the last 5 years?

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response – There have been no files regarding cases of female genital mutilation sent to CPS for charging decisions by the Hertfordshire Constabulary Joint Child Protection Investigation Team in the last 5 years.

The numerical data presented in this response is an un-audited snapshot of un-published data sourced from "live" systems and is subject to the interpretation of the original request by the individual extracting the data.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
