REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/01762

I write in connection with your request for information received on 3rd April. I note you seek access to the following information:

1) how many Vauxhall Corsa's have been targeted by so-called Corsa Cannibals and been stripped of major bodywork parts, such as the bonnet or boot in your area this year?
How does this compare with the figures for the whole of 2017?

2) how does this compare with other similar sized vehicles such as Ford Fiestas, Renault Clios or VW Polos?

3) do your crime analysts recognise Corsa Cannibals as a trend, and if so, why is it happening?

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Response - Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Please see the attached FOI2018 01762 Annexe A document. The data provided is all the statistical data held by the Constabulary in relation to your request and within the specified time period.

The numerical data presented in this response is an un-audited snapshot of un-published data sourced from "live" systems and is subject to the interpretation of the original request by the individual extracting the data.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
