REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/01969

I write in connection with your request for information received on 13th April. I note you seek access to the following information:

- 1) For the calendar years 2015, 2016, 2017 and the period 1st January 2018 to 12th April 2018, could you tell me the number of unlicensed music events/illegal raves reported to your force?
- 2) If it is within the time/cost limit, could you tell me how arrests were made in response to these reports of unlicensed music events/illegal raves? If it is not within the time/cost limit, please provide an answer to question 1 only.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Response - Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below:

The information you have requested is not easily retrievable from the information systems. There are no markers on the system to extract this information or no methodology to facilitate analysis in determining if any records are held.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that –
“Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Hertfordshire Constabulary, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact. This letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
