REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/05845

I write in connection with your request for information received on 12th October. I note you seek access to the following information:

As a parent of an 11 year old at Rickmansworth School, it has been apparent that more and more schools in the area are sending messages to parents re strangers approaching school age children and asking them to get into cars or making inappropriate comments. There have been three incidents reported this week alone, all unrelated. Could you please provide data of how many incidents have been recorded by police in the areas of Rickmansworth, Croxley Green and including Mill End. All in the last year.

I sent the following request moments ago and forgot to request the area of Chorleywood to also be included in this request:

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response – The information you have requested is not centrally recorded by Hertfordshire Constabulary. Incidents regarding strangers approaching children will be classified as ‘Concern for Welfare’ or ‘Suspicious Circumstances’. There have been 200 incidents with these classifications in the month previous in the Rickmansworth/Croxley Green/Mill End and Chorleywood area.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that – “Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Hertfordshire Constabulary, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
