REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/05910

I write in connection with your request for information received on 16th October. I note you seek access to the following information:

A recent news article (<https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-36988316> and <https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-scotland-glasgow-west-36985807>) reported on the number of incidents involving butane hash oil (BHO) – also known as “honey oil”, “dabs” or “shatter” – which have led to service callouts.

Within this context, for each of the last five financial years (including 2018/19):

- How many callouts have been linked with BHO production?
- How many (a) fatalities and (b) injuries did these callouts/incidents result in?

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following your request, searches were conducted at Hertfordshire Constabulary for information relating to call outs in regards to butane hash oil.

These searches failed to locate any records / documents relevant to your request. Accordingly I have determined that Hertfordshire Constabulary do not hold the information you have requested.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
