REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/05512

I write in connection with your request for information received on 30th September. I note you seek access to the following information:

For the year 2018 (Jan -Sep) please advise on the number times a private dwelling was used as a place of safety under s.136 of the Mental Health Act 83. Of those times, please advise how many required additional Police assistance.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response – The only way we could identify incidents such as these would be through analysis of the Incident Management System, and then by reading the free text fields to ascertain the nature of the terms of the place of safety. With hundreds of mental Health tagged incidents per month and with no categorisation of addresses it would far exceed the time allocated.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that –
“Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Hertfordshire Constabulary, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
