REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/04613

I write in connection with your request for information received on 16th August. I note you seek access to the following information:

I am writing to request information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. I would like to receive information regarding so-called 'pop up brothels'.

1) How many properties has this force investigated in relation to complaints of alleged sex work in the past three years?

2) How many of these reports turned out to be substantiated, i.e. how many properties were proven to have been used as a place of temporary sex work?

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response - Searches were made on our crime systems using the word 'brothel'. These searches returned 153 crimes and incidents in relation to brothels. To decipher if any of these brothels were temporary would mean each individual record would require manually checking in order to see if they are relevant to your request.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that –
“Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Hertfordshire Constabulary, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

The numerical data presented in this response is an un-audited snapshot of un-published data sourced from "live" systems and is subject to the interpretation of the original request by the individual extracting the data.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
