REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/04685

I write in connection with your request for information received on 20th August. I note you seek access to the following information:

Per calendar year, dating back to 2014 (and including 2018 to date), how many times has dash cam, mobile phone or helmet camera footage been submitted to Hertfordshire Constabulary in relation to driving offences? Per calendar year, dating back to 2014 (and including 2018 to date), how many times has Hertfordshire Constabulary taken action following the submission of dash cam, mobile phone or helmet camera footage in relation to driving offences? Please provide a breakdown of action taken.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Constabulary please see our response below.

Response – The information you have requested is not retained within any department. To respond to this request would require a member of staff to go through every collision recorded and see if there is mention of dash cam footage.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that –
“Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Hertfordshire Constabulary, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
