REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/04772

I write in connection with your request for information received on 23rd August. I note you seek access to the following information:

- Dating back to 2014 (and including the latest figure), what percentage of Hertfordshire Constabulary's budget has been spent on roads policing? Please provide the figure for each financial year

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following your request, searches were conducted at Hertfordshire Constabulary for information relating to what percentage of Hertfordshire Constabulary's budget has been spent on roads policing. I can confirm that the force do not centrally record percentages.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the authority does not have to answer the question if this would mean creating new information. Accordingly I have determined that Hertfordshire Constabulary do not hold the information you have requested.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
